GENERAL INFORMATION

All course work taken prior to the Fall 1987 semester will remain as a Saddleback College transcript. Effective with the Fall 1987 semester, Saddleback College and Irvine Valley College were authorized to issue separate transcripts for courses taken at each institution. These transcripts will reflect separate cumulative grade point averages.

Full-time enrollment is 12 or more units. The Associate Degree is conferred for 60 transferable units, 2.00 grade point average, including specific courses.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Unless exceptions are noted following the course description in the college catalog, the following numbering system governs the applicability of courses toward completion of programs:

001-199	Courses designed for transfer to the California State University system and other four-year colleges and universities.
200-229	Basic and vocational skills courses designed to satisfy the Associate degree requirement, but generally are not transferable to four-year colleges and universities.
300-399	Courses which are generally remedial and/or designed to meet the needs of the community. These courses completed Fall 1988 and later will not be applicable to the Associate degree.
400-499	Courses which generally provide vocational training but are not degree applicable. Many of these courses are open/entry-open/exit and/or are scheduled for less than a full semester.
